By law we have to ask you to confirm the following question:

I confirm that I have no criminal record: (please sign below)

AUTOBIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION

Please describe yourself, your family background and why you would like to become a volunteer at The Mount.

Referees

We will need to get two references for your application. Please provide us with the full names, addresses, telephone numbers and e-mail addresses of your two nominated referees. These must be from your current or most recent employer, teachers, tutors, community leaders or Church or youth group leaders. They must not be close friends or members of your own family. Your chosen referees must have known you for at least two years. We are obliged by UK law to send out our reference forms directly from The Mount to your two referees. The referees will need to complete and return the forms as soon as possible to ensure that we can process your application quickly.

(Please give two named persons and not just the name of an organization or company; for example a teacher, a previous employer or a member of the church. Do not give names of relatives or friends)

We have included space for you to indicate whether we should approach the referees in English or another language.
